Interests and Achievements

Computing: I have created various projects over the last 12 weeks during the Bootcamp, currently studying Computer Science with CS50 - Harvard School, also completing a JavaScript course on Udemy and creating more exciting projects that I'll be adding to my GitHub profile soon. I'm also part of Dev Communities and I like to challenge myself by coding challenges from the FrontEnd Mentor website and completing coding challenges from HackerRank.

Hobbies: Apart from coding I have a passion for pilates and love to socialize with family and friends.

Additional Info: I can speak Portuguese and I have a full UK driving license.
